CENTRAL EXCISE COLLECTORATE, ALLAHABAD

Allahabad, the 23rd December 1969

G.S.R. 174.—In exercise of the powers conferred on the Collector under rule 173-H of the C.E. Rules, 1944, I Shri V. Parthasarathy, Collector of Central Excise, Allahabad hereby specify the following conditions subject to which the assessee may retain in or bring into his factory or warehouse, in the relevant circumstances set out in sub-rule (1) of the aforesaid rule, the goods on which duty has been paid and remove such goods from the factory or warehouse without payment of duty under sub-rule (2) thereof:—

1. When such goods are required for use in the manufacture of other goods in the factory.—(i) The assessee shall give written intimation to the Superintendent I/c. of the Range at least 24 hours before the goods are intended to be retained or received into the factory and shall obtain proper acknowledgement showing correct date and time of receipt of the intimation in the Range Office.

(ii) The place for storage of such goods shall be separate and distinct from the main factory and approved store-room for non-duty paid goods and shall be declared to and approved by the Supdt. of C.E. having jurisdiction.

(iii) The Assessee shall keep an account of all such receipts, issues for manufacture of other goods and balances in the proper form (specimen enclosed).

(iv) The stock and accounts shall be open to inspection by any Central Excise Officer visiting the factory/warehouse at all reasonable times.

2. When such goods need to be remade, refined, reconditioned, repaired or subject to any similar process in the factory.—Where the assessee chooses to avail of the benefit of Rule 173-H(1) (b) exclusively without claiming benefit of Rule 173L, he shall observe the following conditions:—

(A) In respect of goods other than—

- (i) Electric Fans,
- (ii) Batteries,
- (iii) Cement,
- (iv) Woollen Fabrics,
- (v) Sugar, and
- (vi) Electric Bulbs.

(i) The Assessee shall notify the Central Excise I/c. of the Range in writing at the hours before the goods are intended to be received into the factory, giving full particulars of the goods intended to be received.

(ii) The assessee shall store the goods separately.

(iii) In the case of woollen fabrics the reprocessing of duty paid goods will be permitted only under the provisions of new Rule 173-L which corresponds to rule 97.

(iv) The assessee shall make available all the Collateral evidence available with him e.g. correspondence with buyers regarding rejection of such goods, reports regarding damage etc. to the Central Excise Officer when so required by him.

(v) The assessee shall maintain a detailed account of the returned goods and the processes to which they are subjected after their return to the factory, as well as of their subsequent removal in proper Form (Appendix II) enclosed.

(vi) The stock and the account in respect thereof maintained by the assessee shall be open to inspection by the C.E. Officers at all reasonable times.

(B) In respect of Electric Batteries, Fans and Electric Bulbs, Tyres, Tubes, Internal Combustion Engines, Electric Motors, Wireless Receiving Sets, Refrigerating and Air-conditioning Appliances, Cycle rims and cycle parts and Trailers:—

(i) The assessee shall notify in writing to the Superintendent I/c. of the Range at least 24 hours before the goods are received into the factory giving full particulars of the goods intended to be received.

(ii) The goods when received shall be stored in a separate place specified for the purpose and repairing, reconditioning etc. shall as far as possible, be undertaken in a separate section as distinct from the manufacturing section.

(iii) When the assessee intends to undertake repairing, reconditioning etc., he shall send prior intimation to the Superintendent I/c. of the Range in writing with full details of the excisable parts which shall be needed for the repair, reconditioning etc. Such intimation shall be sent 24 hours in advance of the actual start of the process.

(iv) The assessee shall pay duty on all excisable parts used for repairing, reconditioning etc. in the usual manner at the time of removal of excisable goods before utilising them for repairs.

(v) All removals of repaired goods shall take place under cover of separate gate passes maintained for this purpose.

(vi) The assessee shall maintain a detailed account of all the returned goods in the proper form (Appendix II) enclosed. The stock and account shall be open to inspection by the Central Excise Officers at all reasonable times.

(vii) The assessee shall remove the goods after repair/reconditioning etc. within one month of the date of receipt thereof into the factory but the time-limit may be extended by an officer not below the rank of a Superintendent of Central Excise to three months subject to the condition that the number of such excisable article so brought into the factory for repair/reconditioning shall not exceed, at any one time, 1 per cent of the annual production of the assessee. The limit may, be relaxed to 5 per cent. in case of Electric Motors, Electric Fans and Electric Batteries. In case of Refrigerating and Air-conditioning Appliances, Electric Motors, Internal Combustion Engines, Electric Fans and Electric Batteries, the normal period for removal of excisable goods may, however, be taken as three months, instead of one month. Extension in these cases may be granted upto nine months by the Superintendent of Central Excise concerned. Extension beyond this period may be granted by the Collector in deserving cases.

(C) When damaged sugar/cement are brought back to the factory for refining, reprocessing etc.

(i) The assessee shall inform the Supdt. C.E. I/c. of the Range 24 hours or such shorter period as can reasonably be accommodated before receipt of the consignment into the factory.

(ii) The assessee shall intimate the Superintendent I/c. of the Range in writing at least 24 hours in advance the date and time of starting, refining, reprocessing etc.

(iii) The Central Excise Officer I/c. will weigh the consignment, draw the representative sample, prepare the usual test memo and forward the samples to the Chemical Examiner for ascertaining the recoverable sugar/cement, before the refining, reprocessing etc. is undertaken. The assessee will be permitted to clear the quantity of sugar to be delivered free of duty from the factory against the damaged goods brought into the factory as determined by the Asstl. Collector on the basis of the results of the Chemical analysis.

(iv) The assessee shall maintain a detailed account of the damaged goods received and the reprocess to which the goods are subjected to at the factory, in the prescribed form (appendix II) enclosed.

(D) The provisions of rule 173-H(2) relating to the duty free removal of duty paid goods received for any purpose mentioned at 2 above will be applicable only in those cases where the assessee has not availed of the benefit under rule 173L, to obtain refund of duty-paid on the goods received in the factory for any of the aforesaid processes and has followed the above procedure. The duty free clearance under this sub-rule shall be admissible only in respect of such quantity as may be admissible only in respect of such quantity as may be available after being remade, refined, reconditioned, repaired or subjected to any such similar process in the factory.

3. When such goods cannot be transported due to circumstances beyond the assessee's control such as the suspension of booking on railways, non-availability of railway wagons or the breakdown of carriage:—(i) The place in the factory where such duty-paid goods are to be stored shall be duly declared and approved by the officer competent to issue or renew the manufacturing licence.

(ii) The storage place shall be separate and distinct from all parts of the premises forming the manufactory and approved store-rooms for non-duty paid goods.

(iii) The assessee shall intimate in writing the Supdt. C.E. I/c. of the Range, as soon as practicable, the reasons for not removing the duty-paid goods from the factory.

(iv) The assessee shall keep an account of all receipts/issues and balance of duty-paid goods in the appended form (Annexure III). The stocks and accounts shall be open to inspection by any Central Excise Officer at all reasonable times.

(v) All issues from the duty-paid premises shall take place under gate passes prescribed under Rule 52-A of the Central Excise Rules, 1944.

4. When such goods are required for test, studying designs, or method of construction, etc.—(i) The assessee shall notify in writing the Supdt. C.E. I/c. of the Range 24 hours before the samples of duty-paid excisable goods are received in the factory.

(ii) The assessee shall keep a simple account of the receipt and disposal of such goods. The stock and account shall be open to inspection by the Central Excise Officer at all reasonable times.

(iii) The correctness of the closing balance will be verified by the Central Excise Officer I/c. at the time of his visit to the factory.

5. When such goods are required to be stored in the factory premises for retail sale or for issue as complimentary gifts or for repacking into packages so as to suit the requirement of individual customers.—(A) Where a manufacturer has a retail shop open to the public it should as far as possible, be located away from the factory premises, and, in any cases physically segregated from the factory premises, there being no entrance to the retail shop from inside the licensed factory premises.

(B) Where a manufacturer wants to store some duty-paid goods for retail sale to factory employees only or issue as complimentary gifts or for repacking, he should normally arrange for storage of such goods outside licensed premises. In case of assessee having no addition storage place out-side the licensed premises for storing duty-paid goods, he may be permitted to store the goods in a separate room/place situated within the factory premises subject to the following conditions:—

(i) The separate room/place where duty-paid goods are to be stored shall be duly declared and approved by the licensing authority concerned prior to storage therein.

(ii) The room or place shall be segregated from the rest of the licensed premises by effectively closing all entrances into it except one communicating only with the open space outside the main factory building and this storage place shall be capable of being securely locked.

- (iii) No duty paid goods shall be stored for this purpose elsewhere in the licensed premises except in such approved room/place.
- (iv) All issues for the retail store must be in accordance with the usual procedure for clearance on payment of duty, except that no gatepass will be required.
- (v) Separate gate-passes under Rule 52-A must be issued for each lot of duty-paid goods at the time of delivery. One gatepass book should be exclusively used for this purpose.
- (vi) The assessee must maintained an account of receipts, issues and balance of duty paid goods stored for retails sale or for issue as complementary gifts in the form appended (Appendix IV) and in respect of goods stored for repacking in Appendix V.
- (vii) The stock and account maintained by the assessee shall be open to inspection by the Central Excise Officers at all reasonable times.
